6. Register and Inscribe a PRE foal into the Spanish Studbook (ANCCE-LGPRE)

ANCCE-LGPRE will NOT do any work for you without you having your own LGPRE Code (Codigo). This is a Code you only need to obtain once, and will remain valid throughout your PRE owning life.

Note 1. You can make address changes and surname changes etc whilst keeping the same Code.

Note 2. You CANNOT upgrade an Owner Code to a Breeder Code. You have to apply for a NEW Code and transfer the horses again

The Application Form FOR A BREEDER or HORSE OWNER CODE is enclosed/attached for you to complete. Please read all the instructions on the application form carefully including the small print !!

You must supply a Personal Identity Number for yourself on the application form – usually this will be your Driving Licence or your Passport. A Photocopy of the document you use for your ID must also be supplied AND attached to the application form.

The cost of an LGPRE Owner Code is currently £43.00, and the Breeder Code is currently £193.00 (Includes P&P) (payable by Cheque to BAPSH Ltd or by Bank Transfer - Sort Code 09-01-55, Account No. 68382684).

Check the Registry section on the BAPSH website for the current fees.

Complete clearly the personal information asked for on the form including the Studfarm address even if it is the same as your home address. Then SIGN and DATE the form, and attach the copy of your ID document, send back to me with your cheque, or email me to confirm payment by Bank Transfer.

IMPORTANT:- The Box labelled 'NAME OF THE STUDFARM' OR 'FARM NAME' – DOES NOT REFER TO YOUR ADDRESS !!! This wording will be the name which will be permanently attached directly to your Breeder or Owner Code and it CANNOT be changed without applying for a NEW CODE. The 'Farm Name' will appear on all your paperwork in the future and will be on the foal's passports as the name of the Breeder if you are going to breed PREs.

It is important therefore to choose a name you like and one that will still make sense if you move address in the future. It can be your own name - many people in Spain and here use their own names, others have a company name. Some people create a unique Studfarm Name to be linked to their LGPRE Breeder or Owner code which may also be registered with BAPSH Ltd to become their AFFIX for registering their foals if they are breeding PREs

NOTE

Many people in the UK have a commercial/advertising studfarm name which is different to the LGPRE Farm Name attached to the breeder code because the rules have changed a lot in recent years. The senior breeders do not want to change their Breeder Code in order to rationalize the plethora of names because this would also require the senior breeder to transfer the ownership of every horse they own from the old Code to the new Code – very expensive !!!!.
